

CATHOLICS AND CLIMATE CHANGE: FAITH, SECURITY AND HEALTH PERSPECTIVES

Reinsch Library Auditorium, Marymount University
October 22, 7:00 – 8:30 PM

Drew Christiansen, S.J., Distinguished Professor of Ethics and Global Development at Georgetown University's School of Foreign Service, co-director of the Program on the Church and the World at the Berkley Center, former director of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Office of International Justice and Peace and editor of America Magazine

Rear Admiral David W. Titley, United States Navy (Retired), Director of the Center for Solutions to Weather and Climate Risk at Pennsylvania State University, former founding director of the US Navy's Task Force on Climate Change

Laura Anderko, Ph.D., R.N., Robert and Kathleen Scanlon Endowed Chair in Values Based Health Care at Georgetown University and White House Climate Champion

This panel of experts will discuss Catholic theology, climate security, environmental health and the EPA's proposed carbon pollution rules (Clean Power Plan)

This FREE and PUBLIC event is co-sponsored by the Catholic Climate Covenant and Marymount University

To register for the event, visit: <http://tinyurl.com/ngzr7al>

